HOPE IN A SLINGSHOT

A documentary by Inka Stafrace as she journeys through Israeli military incursions in the West Bank to discover for herself some of the human truths behind this devastating issue that holds the world in divide.

Decision to broadcast by the ABC was inexplicably reversed.

Date: Wednesday 11th August

Time: 6:30pm

Venue: Mercury Cinema, 13 Morphett Street, Adelaide

Entrance Fee: $10

(please distribute to your friends and colleagues)

"This documentary is a useful primer for anyone trying to understand the plight of Palestinians living under Israeli occupation in the West Bank. The more people who see this film, the better."

James Longley

Academy Award Nominee
